

My name is Janet Groom Pierce and I live in Southern Shores NC. Living on the beautiful Outer Banks gives me constant painting material. My paintings are representational and lean towards contemporary Impressionism in oil or acrylic. I love the outdoors and am drawn to scenes with lush color and bold lighting. Painting is my happy place whether it is on site or in my studio. Hopefully that joy conveys through my paintings.